

TransUnion Credit Score Terms & Conditions

At Lowell, we believe it should be simple and affordable for you to become debt free. Now you're with us, we're here to support you while you take back control of your debt.

WHO WE ARE AND WHAT THIS AGREEMENT DOES

Lowell is a group of companies that includes Lowell Financial Ltd (company registration number 4558936) ("LFL") and Lowell Portfolio I Ltd (company registration number 4857418) ("LPI"), both registered in England and Wales at our registered office, No 1 The Square, Thorpe Park View, Thorpe Park, Leeds LS15 8GH. Both LFL (on the Financial Services Register under firm reference number 730175) and LPI (on the Financial Services Register firm reference number 730071) are authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority. LPI is a specialist debt purchaser and LFL is a debt collection firm which collects and manages debts on LPI's behalf.

The Mobile App "the App" and the Website "the Website" (including the portal where Credit Score (as defined below) is accessed) is operated by Lowell Financial Ltd and so "we" and "us" in these terms refers to Lowell Financial Ltd. These TransUnion Credit Score terms and conditions relate to your use of Credit Score and are in addition to the Mobile App terms and conditions which were presented to you when you initially installed the app and the Website terms and conditions, both of which remain available within the mobile app and on the Website respectively.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE TRANSUNION CREDIT SCORE SERVICE

Certain elements of the App and Website (namely the credit score function ("Credit Score") are made available to you by TransUnion International UK Limited ("TransUnion"). These elements are the "TransUnion Services" and if you choose to use the TransUnion Services, we will need to share data collected from you with TransUnion (and any relevant subcontractors and licensors).

You are not required to use the TransUnion Services if you do not wish to, and if you choose to, you can opt-out at any time by clicking 'opt-out of the credit score service' in the Credit Score section of the App or Website as applicable. There is no charge for using the TransUnion Services, no minimum commitment and no charge for opting-out of using the TransUnion Services.

We will provide you with access to your credit score via the TransUnion Services. We may also, in the future, extend the TransUnion Services to provide you with your credit report. Any credit scores, credit reports and other data, results, flags, reports, documents, specifications outputs and information are provided by TransUnion.

The Credit Score is a facility, which will allow you to make a data subject access request to TransUnion to view your credit score, should you wish to do so. It is not a full data subject access request for all information held by TransUnion about you.

For details of how we use your personal data if you sign up to the credit score feature provided by TransUnion, please see our Credit Score Privacy Notice at lowell.co.uk/credit-score-privacy-notice

Use of the TransUnion Services

You will be required to successfully pass an authentication process before you may have access to the TransUnion Services. Not all users of the App or Website will successfully pass authentication and neither we nor TransUnion are required to notify you to confirm why you may not have been successfully authenticated. One reason for this may be that, at the time you requested access to TransUnion Services, TransUnion was unable to match your personal details to the correct credit profile in its database.

You must be over 18 years of age and live in the UK, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man to have access to TransUnion Services.

Use of the Credit Score is for non-commercial information purposes only. Your right to access Credit Score is personal and cannot be transferred to others. You cannot request credit information on behalf of someone else or about someone else.

Credit Score updates every 7 days and will leave a footprint on your TransUnion credit file with every update but this will not be visible to lenders. The request for a Credit Score shall leave a footprint on your credit file, which is not visible to lenders. This will occur without you requesting a Credit Score directly from TransUnion.

If you have a query regarding Credit Score, you can raise this with TransUnion at transunionstatreport.co.uk/CreditReport/AboutYou or by emailing ukconsumer@transunion.com. Or you can contact us using any of the methods mentioned in the 'Support for the App and Website and how to tell us about problems' section below.

Accuracy of TransUnion Services

TransUnion shall use its reasonable efforts to verify the accuracy of the information provided as part of the TransUnion Services. However, neither we nor TransUnion can guarantee that it is completely accurate as some of this information comes from other businesses and sources, such as the electoral register, insurance companies and financial institutions. Neither we, TransUnion nor any other third parties used to provide the Credit Score have any control over the content of such information and are not responsible if it turns out to be inaccurate. Please contact TransUnion's Support and Help Desk Service if you have a concern that your information is inaccurate or you can contact TransUnion at ukconsumer@transunion.com. TransUnion shall remain fully liable for the compliance of the TransUnion Services with all applicable laws.

The TransUnion Services are for guidance only

Any information provided to you as part of TransUnion Services is provided for guidance and information only. You acknowledge and agree that the fact that you may have a good credit score does not mean that a lender, credit card company or other provider of financial services products will accept your credit application and they will have their own acceptance criteria for making lending decisions. Also, a credit score does not take into consideration affordability issues which are also considered by financial services and other credit providers.

Security

Your right to access TransUnion Services is a personal right and you must not allow any other person to have access to your account using your username and password. You must keep your username and password confidential.

You should contact us immediately if you believe that there is a security issue associated with your account.

You acknowledge and agree that all intellectual property rights in the TransUnion Services and all aspects of them shall be owned by TransUnion or its licensors.

You acknowledge that:

- downloading your Credit Score (and any associated report) into a pdf format and storing it on your device removes the security protection afforded by the App and the Website, which may increase the risk of identity theft, fraud or other disclosure of your personal data; and
- altering the default security settings in respect of any App or Website notifications removes the security protection afforded by the App/Website, which may increase your risk of identity theft, fraud or other disclosure of your personal data.

TransUnion will monitor your Credit Score for changes and may provide us with alerts when there are changes to your Credit Score and any associated report. We may then also provide these alerts to you. You can opt-out of the TransUnion Services by clicking 'opt-out of the credit score service' in the Credit Score section of the App or Website at any time.
